iMANAGE

Outsource your dental compliance management

Take your iComply membership one step further with a virtual iManager to give you peace of mind that your compliance is being managed by an experienced professional.

This service is perfect for smaller practices without a Practice or Compliance Manager as well as practices who would prefer to focus their attention on other critical tasks.

“For years we’ve been asked ‘Can you just do the compliance for us?’ I’ve always had to say no, but now finally I’m delighted to tell you “Yes, we can”.”

Alex O’Neill

Head of Customer Success, Agilio

This service provides more than 100 hours of support each year and is an investment to free up critical management time, allowing you to focus on patients or to have more personal time doing what you love.

Why choose Agilio as your compliance partner?

- ✔ iComply is the most widely used compliance solution in the dental profession, backed by the largest team of dental experts in the UK.
- ✔ Our market leading, cloud-based software gives you all the documents, guidance and support you need to manage compliance within your practice.
- ✔ Our company size and wealth of experience enable us to keep up to date with the ever-changing regulatory landscape, provide personal attention and continuously develop our software with new features.
- ✔ iManage is the perfect addition to iComply. The combination of compliance management software and a remote expert gives you peace of mind that your compliance needs are being taken care of.

“iManage is the service I have always wanted to create for our members. For years we’ve been asked ‘Can you just do the compliance for us?’ I’ve always had to say no, but now finally, by combining the power of our software with years of experience gained through hundreds of successfully delivered consultancies, I’m delighted to tell you “Yes, we can”.

Just ask yourself how many new patients could you acquire if you weren’t ‘doing compliance’ and how much revenue would that bring to your top line?”
